Please explain how the activity will promote the interests of the Commonwealth, a county or a municipality.	This event is geared towards inspiring dialogue on campus and to deepen the understanding of issues shaping our world. As a Salem State Alumni, Salem resident, former Salem Police Chief and State Representative for the Essex 7 th District, and current District Attorney, conversations among this community with local and national leaders help me better serve the people of Essex County in my role as chief law enforcement officer. I also support the university's public education mission.
