Dear Treasurer Goldberg,

I hope this email finds you well.

I wanted to reach out regarding a meeting with a high ranking officials delegation from Israel's National Defense College (INDC) arriving in Boston on the second week of June (8th-12th). They requested a meeting with you again based on your extremely helpful insights with last year's cohort.

If you recall, the INDC is Israel's premier academic institution for strategic studies. It brings together high-ranking civil servants and senior IDF officers to explore the broad spectrum of national security challenges facing the State of Israel. The program offers a comprehensive, interdisciplinary approach – examining the interplay between defense, foreign policy, the economy, and social resilience – in order to cultivate informed, strategic leadership for the public sector.

The upcoming visit is a part of their academic research and training in partnership with Haifa University. The group of 12 government officials, IDF officers, and 2 senior officers from Greece and Germany are assigned to research other countries' national security and important domestic issues. They will be exploring and addressing elements of anti-Semitism in liberal states.

Would you be available on Wednesday, June 11 at around 9AM to meet with the group?

Respectfully,

Erin

Dear Treasurer Goldberg,

I hope this email finds you well.

I wanted to reach out regarding a meeting with a high ranking officials delegation from Israel's National Defense College (INDC) arriving in Boston on the second week of June (8th-12th). They requested a meeting with you again based on your extremely helpful insights with last year's cohort.

If you recall, the INDC is Israel's premier academic institution for strategic studies. It brings together high-ranking civil servants and senior IDF officers to explore the broad spectrum of national security challenges facing the State of Israel. The program offers a comprehensive, interdisciplinary approach – examining the interplay between defense, foreign policy, the economy, and social resilience – in order to cultivate informed, strategic leadership for the public sector.

The upcoming visit is a part of their academic research and training in partnership with Haifa University. The group of 12 government officials, IDF officers, and 2 senior officers from Greece and Germany are assigned to research other countries' national security and important domestic issues. They will be exploring and addressing elements of anti-Semitism in liberal states.

Would you be available on Wednesday, June 11 at around 9AM to meet with the group?

Respectfully,

Erin

Dear Treasurer Goldberg,

I hope this email finds you well.

I wanted to reach out regarding a meeting with a high ranking officials delegation from Israel's National Defense College (INDC) arriving in Boston on the second week of June (8th-12th). They requested a meeting with you again based on your extremely helpful insights with last year's cohort.

If you recall, the INDC is Israel's premier academic institution for strategic studies. It brings together high-ranking civil servants and senior IDF officers to explore the broad spectrum of national security challenges facing the State of Israel. The program offers a comprehensive, interdisciplinary approach – examining the interplay between defense, foreign policy, the economy, and social resilience – in order to cultivate informed, strategic leadership for the public sector.

The upcoming visit is a part of their academic research and training in partnership with Haifa University. The group of 12 government officials, IDF officers, and 2 senior officers from Greece and Germany are assigned to research other countries' national security and important domestic issues. They will be exploring and addressing elements of anti-Semitism in liberal states.

Would you be available on Wednesday, June 11 at around 9AM to meet with the group?

Respectfully,

Erin
