Dear Mr. Story:

I write in response to your records request to the Office of the Governor, dated September 23, 2026, seeking "[a]ll travel disclosures filed with or approved by the governor's office by her cabinet secretaries, office staff, and other appointees of the governor … since Governor Healey was inaugurated on January 5, 2023."

By law, records held by the Office of the Governor are not subject to the Massachusetts public records law. See Lambert v. Executive Director of the Judicial Nominating Council, 425 Mass. 406, 409 (1997). Governor Healey's Office will evaluate public records requests based on the public records law, established exemptions, and any unique obligations of the Office of the Governor.

Enclosed are documents responsive to your request. Redactions have been applied consistent with exemption (c) of the public records law.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kimberly Baptiste
