Dear Mr. Story,

I am writing in response to your July 9, 2026, correspondence regarding your June 17, 2026, request for:

All emails (including attachments) between any @mapension.com email address and any @IsraelBonds.com email address.

Time span: Aug 1, 2025 to present.

After reviewing the search process, it was found that an error was made while searching for responsive records. Therefore, the following records are attached in electronic format:

- Emails to and from @mapension.com email addresses and @IsraelBonds.com email addresses from August 1, 2025 to June 17, 2026.

Please note that redacted personal phone lines have been identified as being within the coverage of G. L. c. 4, § 7(26)(c)¹ and therefore may not be produced because disclosure would result in an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Additionally, certain redacted information (bank account information, account numbers, wire instructions) has been identified as being within the coverage of G. L. c. 4, § 7(26)(n)² and therefore may not be produced as it pertains to internal security measures.

Pursuant to 950 CMR §32.08(1) and M.G.L. c. 66 § 10(a), you are hereby advised of your remedies including your right to appeal to the Supervisor of Records and the right to seek judicial review of an unfavorable decision by commencing a civil action in the superior court.

¹G. L. c. 4, § 7(26)(c) exempts "personnel and medical files or information and any other materials or data relating to a specifically named individual, the disclosure of which may constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; provided, however, that this subclause shall not apply to records related to a law enforcement misconduct investigation."

² G. L. c. 4, § 7(26)(n) exempts "records, including, but not limited to... policies, procedures..., security measures...or any other records relating to the security or safety of persons or buildings, structures, facilities...located within the commonwealth, the disclosure of which, in the reasonable judgment of the record custodian, subject to review by the supervisor of public records under subsection (c) of section 10 of chapter 66, is likely to jeopardize public safety or cyber security."
