Hello,

I was reviewing a previous response provided to another party:

1916_Response.pdf

1916_Final_Production.pdf

That response contains three emails that I believe match the criteria in my request:

- August: 5.40% eMazel Tov Bonds from August 4, 2025
- Automatic reply: It's HOT. Stay Inside & Invest Online from August 1, 2025
- It's HOT. Stay Inside & Invest Online from August 1, 2025

Was there an error in my request that caused these (and possibly other records) to be excluded? Can the search be re-run?

Thank you,
Nathan

Dear Mr. Story,

Thank you for your email and inquiry.

Upon review of our process used to search for responsive records, PRIM identified an error in the search terms applied. Specifically, the email database search was conducted using the term "@israelibonds.com" rather than "@IsraelBonds.com," as specified in your June 11, 2026, request [added an extra "i"].

I apologize for the mistake. Accordingly, PRIM will re-run the search of its email database and provide any responsive records identified as soon as practicable. I will be in touch with a new response soon.

Thank you,
John Fitzpatrick
