Dr. Taylor,

Good afternoon. Thank you for the reply. My apologies, I meant to provide some additional context for this meeting request.

The Director of the Higher Education, R&D and Innovation Team at the Budget Department of the Israel Ministry of Finance, Ms. Avigail Wenkart, will be visiting Boston from Wednesday, July 23rd to Friday, July 25th. She would like to meet with you to learn from the MLSC's model for advancing public-private partnerships, workforce development, and infrastructure investment in the life sciences ecosystem, and to exchange perspectives on how public funding can best support long-term scientific and economic impact. I have listed some revised meeting times below. I look forward to working with Kathryn to find a time that works for everyone to meet either at the consulate or another location in Boston.

Thank you, Brooke for the kind invitation to meet with Consul General Sharoni. I have copied my relevant team members who will help with the scheduling. Kathryn will be the point person for coordinating the calendars. I very much enjoyed my earlier conversation with him before the ceremony.

All the best,

Kirk
